

Teacher Notes

Before beginning the activity, it is helpful to model how to do it. For example, you might choose to model #6 across by writing the following dialogue on the board:

Student A: You draw or paint in this class.

Student B: Art?

Student A: Yes, you got it!

Student B: OK, let's do #1 down. You use this in math class or to draw straight lines...

Student A: Hmmmm.....
